From the Editors Desk

Hello All,

This mag's front cover is all the way from Tatton Park in the UK, where our good friend Dave was showing his Targa. These pictures of his car are from the Practical Classics Magazine's Facebook page that was shared to our club's page. I'm sure they won't mind us using them. They were quite taken with his car and didn't think anyone would find anything as rare. Being in the UK, I suppose they would be right!

In the last issue, Jim had pictures of his restoration of his White Super that he was readying for his daughter's wedding. Well, he made it. Great work!! I have included some pictures of his car looking resplendent, with wedding ribbon and backed up by another impressive car.....Neville's Targa Florio.

This is my last Mag as editor. I have had major time issues between working and going away. I have managed to get the last 3 mags done in about a week as time has finally arrived. I'm sorry these mags are all late, but at least I eventually managed to do them. What we need now is to support the next editor and supply her with things to put in it. Thanks to Perdita for taking over.

See you around soon,

Graham & Carol D.
